ASSOCIATE PASTOR REPORT

Last Month

- We had a great VBS. Numbers started low but went up every day, which is unusual for VBS. We will be working on next year's VBS in early spring of next year.
- The worship ministry met to discuss song selection. We agree on a smaller songs, and on practicing more. We will be discussing better ways to encourage others lead worship.
- I talked to Chris Hutchison about moving the sound booth to the auditorium. He said that material prices have gone up and it is not reasonable to do it right now. He is working on making a drawing to better understand the plan and to make a list of the materials we will need to build it.
- Children's WOW will start on September 8th @ 6 pm and we will be teaching "WHATS IN THE BIBLE." I to Ms. April, Mrs. Cleone, and Mrs. Bonnie about CHILDREN WOW. They all have decided to help teach that group. Each of them will teach two weeks in a row, and then take four weeks off. We will be sending a letter next week informing the parents of this.
- We have been contacting our missions to participate on our Faith Promise rally, scheduled for October 17th to the 24th. We have secured 8 of them so far, and working on a speaker.
- I am working on the New believer's class and will be working on the new members class, once i finished it.

COMING UP

- I will be leading worship this Sunday.
- We will re-start youth and young adults WOW this Wednesday (8/18), and we will continue our study on "THE CHOSEN" season 2.
- I will be preaching on September 29th on 1st kings 19*20
